FROM THE PASTOR

Holy Week Lingo, explained to help you know what's going on at church from April 2nd - 9th.

Holy Week is the week leading up to Easter. Every Sunday we gather to celebrate the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, but during Holy Week we really sink our teeth into the story and think about what it means for us as Christians today. We gather for worship more often to hear the full scope of the drama and intensity as Jesus enters Jerusalem and heads towards the cross.

Palm Sunday is also known as Passion Sunday. Palm Sunday is always the Sunday before Easter and the beginning of Holy Week. On this Sunday we mark Jesus' triumphant entry into Jerusalem. We cry out "Hosanna, blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!" and wave our palms along with the voices from scripture who welcomed Jesus into Jerusalem, expecting a political overthrow of the Roman government. Then we shift tones and hear the story of Jesus' trial and commendation to death on the cross. Again, joining with the voices of the crowd in scripture that called out, "Crucify him!"

Maundy Thursday gets its name from the Latin mandatum which means "mandate" because on this night we hear the new commandment, or mandate, from Jesus to follow his example and humbly love and serve one another. We commemorate two accounts of Jesus' last night with his disciples – one from John's gospel in which Jesus kneels and washes the disciples' feet, and one from Luke and Matthew in which Jesus takes the bread and the cup and commands us to "do this in remembrance of me." This is where communion comes from, so we always have communion during the Maundy Thursday service. This service ends with the stripping of the altar. The front area of the worship space is stripped of all furnishings as a sign of Jesus' abandonment by the very disciples whose feet he just washed.

Good Friday seems like a strange name for the day we remember the death of Jesus. But because we know the power of Jesus' death – that it fills all of the human experience, even death with God's love – we call this day Good. Good Friday services are different from church to church and even year to year at the same church. Some honor the cross; some focus on Jesus' words from the cross; some focus on light and shadows and song (Tenebrae), but at the heart of each is the story of Jesus' death, for you.

Easter Sunday is the high holy day of the church year. It is the most important story because Jesus' resurrection reminds us that there really is nothing at all that can separate us from the love of God – not even death, and that God brings new life into hopeless situations.

I hope you join us for worship this Holy Week to hear the story of God's great love, the story of death and resurrection. This is your story, too.

In Christ,
Pastor Maggie

FROM THE PRESIDENT

It's been just over a year since the sale of the parsonage was finalized. Now that the dust has finally settled, literally, it's time to share how the congregation has benefitted from that sale. Below is an outline of how the proceeds have been used to date to pay for projects without impacting the general fund. If you have questions about the parsonage sale, or how the funds have been used, please feel free to talk with Randy Hartman, Peace's Treasurer, or me.

Dirk Kagerbauer
Leadership Team President

Parsonage Sale Price: $135,000 + $32.41 in recycling proceeds = $135,032.41

- Closing Costs & Fees: $1,595.00
- Rent Proration: $1,016.13

FIRST COMMUNION

---

Communion Education and Bread Baking in preparation for First Communion

When: Saturday, April 15th and 22nd, 9-11AM;

First Communion will be celebrated in worship on Sunday, April 23rd.

What: Communion Education (4/15) and Bread Baking (4/22)

Who: Open to curious kids (and adults) who want to explore the sacred meal we share. Children must attend with at least one adult with whom they attend worship.

It is Pastor Maggie's practice to let first communion be a family decision. We will offer this class once a year. It has been the tradition of this church for children in 2nd grade to learn about communion, so the teaching will be geared towards around that age. That said, parents are the biggest influencer of their children's faith and you know your child best. ANY CHILD you feel is ready for a learning experience about communion - what we do and why we do it - is welcome to join us to prepare for their first communion on 4/23.

If your child(ren) already shares in the meal and you've never attended an official learning time, please join us when you are ready!

Questions? Email pastor.maggie@peaceoshkosh.org

**Note on Newish from Pastor Maggie: It's my understanding that it's been a few years since we've had an official new member group gathering. If you haven't been to one at Peace, this is for you!*

OUR CHURCH FAMILY

In the hallway between the church sanctuary and the church office is a lovely bulletin board called Our Church Family, created by the Care of Congregation Team. This bulletin board reminds us to keep in our prayers the members of our Church Family who may not be able to worship with us each week. Some have moved to different home arrangements, some are serving in the military, and some have passed away. We do our best to keep the board up to date so we can all remember these members in our prayers.

If you are able to help us with any updates, please reach out to Heather Miller.

REFLECTIONS ON GOD'S WORD

Below are verses from the month's Bible readings that made me stop and ask, "What is this telling me about my relationship with God and other people?" When time allows, re-visit the Sunday Bible readings. Look for verses that help answer that question for you.

Dirk Kagerbauer, Leadership Team

Week of April 2, 2023

Philippians 2:5-8 5 Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus, 6 who, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God as something to be exploited, 7 but emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, being born in human likeness. And being found in human form, 8 he humbled himself and became obedient to the point of death—even death on a cross.

Again, we're reminded what it means to be a Christian. Like Jesus, we humble ourselves before God, becoming servants to others as we share with them the news of His forgiveness through Christ's death and resurrection.

Week of April 9, 2023

Acts 10:43 43 All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name."

This is Step 1. Believe that God sacrificed His only son so that we may be saved. Step 2: Trust that God will always be there with and for us. Step 3: Out of thankfulness to God for his unwavering love and forgiveness, work to develop a relationship with Him through praise, prayer, thanksgiving, and service to others.

Week of April 16, 2023

Acts 2:25-28 25 For David says concerning him, 'I saw the Lord always before me, for he is at my right hand so that I will not be shaken; 26 therefore my heart was glad, and my tongue rejoiced; moreover, my flesh will live in hope. 27 For you will not abandon my soul to Hades, or let your Holy One experience corruption. 28 You have made known to me the ways of life; you will make me full of gladness with your presence.'

These assurances from God give me the freedom and strength to fulfill His mission for me. Although this mission is the same for every Christian (to share the news of God's forgiveness through the death and resurrection of His son, Jesus Christ), how I complete it is a product of the spiritual gifts God has given me.

Week of April 23, 2023

Psalms 116:12-16 12 How shall I repay the Lord for all the good things God has done for me? 13 I will lift the cup of salvation and call on the name of the Lord. 14 I will fulfill my vows to the Lord in the presence of all God's people. 15 Precious in your sight, O Lord, is the death of your servants. 16 O Lord, truly I am your servant; I am your servant, the child of your handmaid; you have freed me from my bonds.

The what and the why of Christianity.

Week of April 30, 2023

1 Peter 2:23-24 23 When he was abused, he did not return abuse; when he suffered, he did not threaten; but he entrusted himself to the one who judges justly. 24 He himself bore our sins in his body on the cross, so that, free from sins, we might live for righteousness; by his wounds you have been healed.

It isn't always easy being a Christian. Doing the right thing does not guarantee that we won't experience difficulties, hardship, rejection, and even suffering. But Jesus provides us with an example of how to handle the challenges we face and, in the process, shows us the reward that God has prepared for us in doing so.

THANK YOU TO OUR VOLUNTEERS

Data entry of contribution information, washes communion elements, in charge of all altar flowers

Wednesday - Kim Jungwirth

Prints all Sunday Service materials, prepares the sanctuary for Sunday and preps all envelopes for mass mailings

Folds all bulletins, maintains the Little Free Pantry and lounge fridge, odds and ends detail cleaning, and writes thank you cards from the office.
