A Dream Becomes A Reality

In a brochure prepared and presented to the congregation in 1948 relative to building the new Church, appeared this article: "The Future of Peace Lutheran Church." We quote the last paragraph, "Our long range planning includes a new educational unit, recreational building, and a new parsonage. Let us pray and work that the future of Peace Church will no longer be a dream, but become a reality!"

After the new Peace Lutheran Church was dedicated in September, 1951, various committees studied the problem of the site and location of the new parsonage. Since a larger educational building would be needed as had been previously anticipated and both educational building and parsonage could not be located east of the present church, a meeting was called on March 13, 1955 to resolve the matter. At the meeting it was voted that Peace Lutheran Church complete negotiations for all property west of the church on West Ninth Avenue. Thus the decision was made that the parsonage be adjacent to the church and all negotiations were completed.

Since the educational building and the new parsonage were proposed together as the second step in the long-range planning of Peace Lutheran Church it was not until October 19, 1958 that the revised plans for the educational unit and new parsonage were presented. The working drawings for this new parsonage prepared by Lang & Raugland Architects of Minneapolis, Minnesota, were ready and thus at this Annual meeting of 1958 the contracts for the new parsonage were awarded: General Contractor — Discher Brothers; Plumbing and Heating — Kurt Zentner & Sons; Electrical — Steinert Electric.

The members of the Building Committee who have worked faithfully to bring the first phase of the second step of our future expansion to its completion are: Herman Steinert Jr., Chairman; Carlton Stuebs, Secretary; Edwin Bloedow; E. C. Duwe; Harvey Japp; Herman Plotz; Robert Radtke; and Pastor I. Harold Kuester, ex-officio.

An open house for all members and friends of Peace Lutheran Church will be held this afternoon from 2:00 to 5:00 P.M.

It should be noted that before this phase is completed the house at 258 West Ninth Avenue, occupied by Pastor Kuester and family at present, will be moved, then a two-car garage north of the home will be constructed and the entire area landscaped.
