THOUGHTS FROM PASTOR BRAD

Let the peace of Christ keep you in tune with each other, in step with each other. None of this going off and doing your own thing. And cultivate thankfulness. Let the Word of Christ—the Message—have the run of the house. Give it plenty of room in your lives. Instruct and direct one another using good common sense. And sing, sing your hearts out to God! Let every detail in your lives—words, actions, whatever—be done in the name of the Master, Jesus, thanking God the Creator every step of the way.

Colossians 3:15–17 (The Message translation)

Beloved children of God,

I honestly don't have words to share that might explain how important my time at Peace Lutheran Church has been. You have been a blessing to me, to Steph, and to our dogs—first Oscar and now Gus. You welcomed me in as a Vicar in 2010-11, teaching me how to care for a congregation, how to love people where they were at and how far a simple "Thank You" can take you. We learned together, grew together and realized how much we cared for each other. I will never forget the Easter Breakfast of 2011—I think we might still have milk left over—and how you embraced the idea that there was nothing that we couldn't do together.

In the spring of 2017, the opportunity to submit my name to be the next Pastor of Peace was presented to me and I immediately knew that I had to see if that is where the Holy Spirit was leading. I came here in July of 2017 and since then it has been a marvelous ride. We've worked together, played together, argued together, grieved together, endured a pandemic together, and, through it all, we've been reminded that God truly does love us as we are. If I have taught you nothing else in my time with you, I hope you will remember that God's love for you is bigger and greater than all things.

The question of the moment is, "WHAT NEXT?"

For me, I'm still not quite sure. The congregation I had interviewed with decided to go a different direction with their next pastor. I was disappointed; but, as I've reflected on it, if I hadn't had that interview with them then Stephanie would never have applied for this Chaplain job that she is currently loving. I know God has a plan for me and right now that plan is patience.

For you, as Peace Lutheran, the leadership team is actively preparing for the next steps. I want to remind you that this is a process and one that is very intentional. Do not try to rush it but rather trust the process and the steps involved. You have a solid leadership team in place here at Peace and they will keep you informed as to how the process is unfolding. I have no doubt that there is a Pastor who will be exactly what you need at this time and I am grateful that they will get to experience the community that exists at Peace Lutheran Church.

When I started here in 2017, I never would have imagined that our time together would be so short, but that is often how the Holy Spirit works, guiding us from place to place and often when we least expect it but always faithful. I am thankful for all of you and thankful for the lessons you've taught me. I don't believe in goodbyes; the church is too small of a place for that. I believe in see-you-laters because I know I will be back in the Oshkosh area often because this has become home for Steph and me. I also know I will see you later because God has promised all of us the gift of eternal life and God keeps God's promises.

Please keep in touch if you want, I am easy to find on social media and I will make sure the office has our new mailing address. My phone number will also stay the same so feel free to send me a text and remind me how much better the Packers are than the Vikings. Most of all, though, continue to be the amazing people God has created you to be. I am a better pastor and a better person because I have known you. Never forget that.

Remember that you are loved by God and by me.

Shalom,

Pastor Brad Dill

The group is open to families young and old, big and small, many or just one. After all, we are all family at Peace. If you have any questions or would like further information, please contact Nicki at nicki@peaceoshkosh.org

A heartfelt thank you to all who donated to our Bible Sponsor program. We were able to provide enough Bibles for all of our Preschool friends, our new confirmation students and all of the kids who were ready to transition into the next level for their Bibles.

Thank you for helping build that connection with the children in our Peace family.

A huge thank you to the Friedrich family, Amanda and the McKnight boys for coming out to help with the fall clean up. Thank you to Dirk and Deb for organizing the event and making sure the cemetery is ready for winter.

Getting Ready Study November 21st 6:30-8:00pm

There are five units in this curriculum to correlate with the five daily themes of the Gathering. Each unit has two sessions, each approaching the theme from a different perspective.

In addition to exploring the daily themes, each lesson also provides opportunities for group building and practical preparation for going to Minneapolis.

These sessions are scheduled for once-a-month meetings and are mandatory as part of our agreement in attending the gathering next summer.

Please plan on attending the third Sunday of every month.

BRAVE SPACE

Peace Brave Space will be meeting again on Friday, November 12th from 6:00pm until 8pm. Those who have attended Peace Brave Space asked for more time together so we are going to make that happen! One thing we are going to do is make a poster to hang up at Peace.

What is Peace Brave Space? This is a meeting space for LGBTQIA+ youth and allies to gather together without judgment. We have some time together to talk about issues that are going on, we have time to play video games, and we have crafts available for the creative youth.

If you are a parent with questions or concerns, please feel free to e-mail me at sommer@peaceoshkosh.org or call at (920) 915-3813.

MINI-OKTOBERFEST

This year we did not host a large Oktoberfest, but we were able to enjoy some of Peace Lutheran Church roots with a mini-Oktoberfest.

Hosted by Amy Lee, Karen Kieper and Kim Blake-Jungwirth there were German desserts, potato pancakes, and a few items to nibble.

Kim hosted a German Trivia contest!

WEDNESDAY WORSHIP

In addition to our Sunday morning offerings we also offer worship on Wednesday nights at 5:30pm on Facebook Live. The service, including the message, is different from Sunday mornings. If you are looking for an opportunity to worship during the week this might be a great option for you!

PANTRY COLLECTIONS

LUTHERAN FOOD PANTRY SUNDAY IS THE FIRST SUNDAY OF EACH MONTH. Food donations can be put by the altar. Food donations can also be brought anytime the church is open. Those donations should be put in the gray cabinet next to the elevator at the Ninth Avenue entry by the Circle Drive. See related article on page 11.

LITTLE FREE PANTRY SUNDAY IS THE THIRD SUNDAY OF EACH MONTH. Donations can be put by the altar. Non-perishable food, personal care items and gift cards may be left in the Pantry at any time. Overflow donations can be placed on the shelves near the elevator at Ninth Avenue entry of the Circle Drive anytime the church is open. Cash donations should be dropped off or sent to the church office. For more information about the Little Free Pantry, visit <https://www.facebook.com/littlefreepantryatpeace/>.

MEMBER INFORMATION—CHURCH FAMILY BOARD

In the hallway between the church sanctuary and the church office is a lovely bulletin board called Our Church Family, created by the Care of Congregation Team. This bulletin board reminds us to keep in our prayers the members of our Church Family who may not be able to worship with us each week. Some have moved to different home arrangements, some are serving in the military, and some have passed away.

We do our best to keep the board up to date so we can all remember these members in our prayers. If you are able to help us with any updates, please reach out to Heather Miller.

ADVENT WORSHIP SERIES

“WAIT UPON THE LORD”

The season of Advent is characterized by waiting; the waiting that happens for God's presence to be revealed to us through the Christ child. During this worship series, we will look back at scripture at those who have waited upon the Lord for the promises to come to pass. We will also look at our own period of waiting and how we wait upon the Lord in the present day as God continues to be made known to us, often in unexpected ways.

- Week 1: Wait Upon the Lord with Faith
- Week 2: Wait Upon the Lord with Hope
- Week 3: Wait Upon the Lord with Rejoicing
- Week 4: Wait Upon the Lord with Gratitude

Join us for worship as together we wait for the coming of the Christ child and for God's ultimate promise to be fulfilled.

REFLECTIONS ON GOD'S WORD

I often forget the Bible readings shortly after a church service...unless I take time during the week to revisit them. Fortunately, our Sunday and Wednesday services are available to listen to online. When I re-listen to the Bible readings I always discover additional insight into how I should be living my life.

Below are verses from November's Bible readings that made me stop and think. If time allows, take a few moments to re-listen to each week's Bible readings. When you find a verse that causes you to pause, ask yourself, "What could this look like in my life?"

Dirk Kagerbauer, Leadership Team

Week of November 7 2021

Psalm 24:1 ¹The earth is the Lord's and all that is in it, the world and those who dwell therein.

Just in case I forget who's really in charge, this verse reminds me that everyone and everything belongs to God. That's a humbling reality.

Week of November 14, 2021

Hebrews 10:24-25 ²⁴And let us consider how to provoke one another to love and good deeds, ²⁵not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

As a Christian, I need other Christians...for encouragement, strength, and to reinforce the knowledge that I am accepted and loved as a fellow child of God. Church gives me the opportunity to be with other Christians and is an important part of my continued growth as a Christian.

Week of November 21, 2021

Revelation 1:8 ⁸"I am the Alpha and the Omega," says the Lord God, who is and who was and who is to come, the Almighty.

OK...God was here before me. I understand that. My time here is brief.

God is with me now. I know that. I can feel His presence.

God will return to bring me into His kingdom. I believe that. He told me so!

Week of November 28, 2021

Psalm 25:4-5 ⁴Show me your ways, O Lord, and teach me your paths. ⁵Lead me in your truth and teach me, for you are the God of my salvation; in you have I trusted all the day long.

The Bible is one place where I can learn about God and what He expects of me. Spending time with other Christians, in and out of church, is another opportunity to learn more about how I can live my life in service to God and others.
